

THE RAINMAKER COMPANIES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

John Chisholm Joins The Rainmaker Companies

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Nov. 5, 2014) - The Rainmaker Companies announced today that John Chisholm has joined the company's national consulting division. His focus will be to further strengthen the company's strategic planning, executive coaching and partner conflict resolution practices. Chisholm brings 18 years of professional consulting experience spanning more than 50 professional service firms in the areas of team building, leadership development, communication skills training, succession planning and organizational development. His unique blend of facilitation and interpersonal skills has placed him in high demand as a retreat facilitator. Chisholm holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from the University of Illinois.

The Rainmaker Companies is a leading provider of alliance, consulting and training services focused exclusively on the Accounting Profession. Launched in 1991, Rainmaker offers transformational training and strategic planning to promoting growth as well as resource sharing for accountants in public practice. For more information, please visit www.therainmakercompanies.com.

###

Media Contact:

John Krenson

(615) 627-1809

john@therainmakercompanies.com

