National CPA Health Care Advisors Association (HCAA) Unveils New Sub Association–Dental CPAs

Nashville, Tennessee- January 3, 2017 – The National CPA Health Care Advisors Association (HCAA), a nationwide network of CPA firms, devoted to serving the health care industry, recently opened up membership into a new sub-group- Dental CPAs. This new sub-group association provides members an expanded peer group of providers serving specifically dentists, where they can exchange business development practices as well as technical knowledge to deliver greater value to their clients. Within HCAA, for accounting and consulting firms, all members are committed to providing specialized, strategic advice that helps their health care clients enhance efficiency and increase profitability.

Current Dental CPAs members are top quality, successful firms with experience working in the dental profession and strong industry networks, working with hundreds of dentists and dental practices nationwide. Together with the entire health care industry, the business of dentistry is changing quickly. Members of Dental CPAs are able to stay current with shifting trends in the health care market and in turn, provide better service to their clients. For more information about Dental CPAs, please visit: <https://hcaa.com/dental/about-dental-cpas>.
